SPIRITUALISM IN NASHVILLE, TENN.

What means Gehazi? Is he mad? Does the King of Assyria row for his life the evidences of a Christ in the prospective day?

From her own statement we learned she had received three violent blows from an enraged servant whom she had displeased, which had so disabled her that she could not sit erect, and could

A few practical observations : Let your mind be free to speak, to act

Some one asked how it was with Swedenborg? He is believed have conversed with real and great spirits from the other world. It is the same (said Dr. Gray) with him as with others. As for self, never having been in the interior state that he knew of, he could not tell by what mode identity is preserved. But he said, if you exchanged, given and received heart-views and sentiments, and you were to take him by the hand and to exchange some of the old sentiments and old remembrances, you could not be deceived as to the identity of your friend. But we can not do this. Personal reference is strangers-at-a-distance, and not in the calendar. Personal reference is in relation with those whose sentiments they shared when the form-as, for instance, fellow-reformers with reformers of their own kind—without individually being represented. When you want to obtain the identity of a Spirit, it is an earthly, personal communication you seek after. It is a personal communication, and the medium gets in the way. It is very grand to have the Spirit of the Lord, and other great man, communicate through her or him, and the spirit generally that of the greatest man in her or his calendar.

In the Arctic regions, where all natural resources are scarce, people can converse more than a mile distant. Dr. Jamieson asserts that he heard every word of a sermon at the distance of two miles. A mother has been distinctly heard talking to her child on a still day across a water a mile wide.
